

Loyal Trust Bank

Loyal Trust Bank is a Community Bank serving a Multi-Cultural population with a focus on Asian Americans and the business community in Johns Creek, Georgia and the Greater Atlanta Market. It was formed by local business owners to serve the unique population and economic growth of these target markets.

The bank is designed to provide not only the latest digital banking services, but offer a high level of customer service provided by local bankers who have the decision-making power to serve our customers. It is the only Community Bank headquartered in Johns Creek giving us a unique opportunity to bank the people we know in a community we understand.
